

LACAC-QCAA International Criminal Aviation Law Course

This course provides representatives of Civil Aviation Administrations, Civil Aviation Authorities, Airports and Air Navigation Service Providers with the necessary legal knowledge on Aviation Security international legal instruments to encounter and suppress Acts of Unlawful Interference. This course is organized by Qatar Civil Aviation Authority (QCAA) and the Latin American Civil Aviation Commission (LACAC) and is hosted by the Civil Aviation Authority of Costa Rica.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- General framework about the evolution of the international legal regime to combat Acts of Unlawful Interference in the civil Aviation sector.
- Understand the principles of legal handling of Acts of Unlawful Interference.
- Provide the necessary knowledge regarding the international legal framework governing the Acts of Unlawful Interference.
- Provide the necessary knowledge in the field of Aviation Security crimes to achieve common understanding with the other State Authorities.
- Understanding the Private International Air Law on the aspect of the third-Party liability regime resulting from Acts of Unlawful Interference.

WHAT IT COVERS

- History of AVSEC international treaties
- Powers of the Pilot in Command
- Unruly passenger
- In-Flight Security Officers
- Establishing State Jurisdiction
- International cooperation in combating Acts of Unlawful Interference
- Acts of Unlawful Interference penalties in national law.
- Tokyo Convention 1963
- Montreal Protocol 2014
- The Hague Convention 1970
- Montreal Convention 1971
- Montreal Protocol 1988
- Marking of Plastic Explosives Convention 1991
- Beijing Convention 2010
- Beijing Protocol 2010
- Montreal Convention (UICC) 2009

DURATION

5 days
22 – 26 April 2024
09:00 hrs – 14:30

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is recommended to civil aviation legal advisors and legal affairs staff, Agreements' Managers and specialists, aviation security managers and inspectors, airports security officers, airlines' legal advisors and legal affairs staff, international relations staff, quality inspectors.

INSTRUCTOR

Mr. Adnan Al Dgour, (LLB)
40 years of CAAs & Airline experience,
24 years in conducting International Law courses.

LANGUAGE

English with simultaneous interpretation in Spanish.

VENUE

COCESNA premises
next to the Radar Building of the Juan Santamaría Intl. Airport, San Jose, Costa Rica.
https://maps.app.goo.gl/da9sa3gH6MxyJyQFA?g_st=iw

COST

Non applicable
Participants must arrange for their own accommodation and travel expenses.

REGISTRATION (Closed)

Application deadline: March 22, 2024

CONTACT INFORMATION

For inquiries, contact pbullon@clac-lacac.org