

JOINT PLEDGE STATEMENT BETWEEN
THE CIVIL AVIATION AUTHORITY OF THE ARAB REPUBLIC OF EGYPT
AND
THE LATIN AMERICAN CIVIL AVIATION COMMISSION (LACAC)

The Civil Aviation Authority of the Arab Republic of Egypt; hereinafter referred to as Egyptian Civil Aviation Authority (ECAA) and THE LATIN AMERICAN CIVIL AVIATION COMMISSION (LACAC); hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties",

- Recognizing their shared interest in promoting safe, secure, efficient and environmentally responsible civil aviation in Latin American and Caribbean countries, and Egypt;
- Acknowledging the important role of cooperation, coordination and exchange of experience among Latin American and Caribbean States, regional organizations, and Egypt;
- Desiring to further strengthen their long-standing relationship and partnership in the field of civil aviation.

hereby make the following non-binding statement:

1. The Parties express their mutual intention to enhance collaboration and dialogue on matters of common interest in civil aviation, including, as mutually agreed, safety, security, air navigation services, airports, environmental protection and capacity-building.
2. The Parties intend to consult and exchange best practices on developments, priorities and needs and, where appropriate, to explore opportunities for collaboration such as expert exchanges, workshops, seminars and other knowledge-sharing activities, as may be mutually agreed.
3. The Parties may, if they so decide, develop separate written understandings, arrangements or agreements in the future to govern any specific activities or initiatives that they mutually agree to undertake.
4. This Joint Statement is not legally binding and does not create any legal or contractual obligations for either Party. It reflects the goodwill and shared intentions of the Parties. Any specific activities or initiatives arising from this understanding shall be pursued, as appropriate, in accordance with the respective mandates, rules and procedures of the Parties.

Signed in two originals in the English language, each Party retaining one original.
